Ground troops get green light

By Gloria Kelly

About 750 Edmonton-based soldiers will be on the ground in Afghanistan within a month. They are the latest addition to Operation APOLLO, the Canadian contribution to the US-led coalition campaign against terrorism. The troops are members of the 3rd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (3 PPCLI) Battle Group, supported by a reconnaissance squadron from Lord Strathcona's Horse (Royal Canadians) with 12 Coyote light armoured vehicles.

The troops will deploy to the Kandahar area as part of a US Army task force. The Canadian commander is 3 PPCLI commanding officer Lieutenant-Colonel Pat Stogran. Advance elements of the Battle Group are currently deploying with the total complement expected to be in theatre no later than mid-February.

"The PPCLI Battle Group and the Canadian soldiers slated to participate in this mission are among the most skilled and professional in the world," said Defence Minister Art Eggleton during a January 7 press conference. "They will make an important contribution to the overall coalition efforts to fight terrorism and fulfill the mandate of bringing peace and stability to Afghanistan."

The mission will include a number of tasks from security operations in support of humanitarian aid delivery to combat operations, said Mr. Eggleton. The Americans specifically requested that Canada send the Coyote vehicles because of their proven state-of-the-art reconnaissance capabilities. Getting the vehicles into theatre will require a strategic airlift, the details of which were to be worked out with US officials.

Overall command of the task force will remain with the Americans. Mr. Eggleton said the interoperability that exists between Canadian and American forces makes CF troops an ideal choice for this mission.

"This mission is not without risks," said General Ray Henault, Chief of Defence Staff. "But, our troops are trained, equipped and ready to carry out a wide range of tasks."

Gen Henault said CF members have gone into other unstable environments in recent years—such as the Balkans and Ethiopia/Eretria—and performed their duties in a highly professional manner.

This latest deployment brings to about 2500 the number of Canadians serving with Op APOLLO. That number could increase to almost 3000 if offered air resources are called upon.

Clothing online trial

Regular force and Class C personnel only

Commencing January 2002, a trial will be conducted for the sale and direct delivery of specified DEU items to Canadian Forces personnel who are in receipt of Clothing Upkeep Allowance (CUA). The trial will be CF wide and will last until approximately summer 2002.

The trial will be completely optional, in that personnel may still use the current Clothing Store system to purchase items of DEU if they wish.

The trial is an E-Commerce initiative, which will allow personnel to order and pay for DEU clothing over the Internet from their home or from their work place Desktop (DIN). Orders will then be delivered directly to the recipient's address of choice. Target delivery times are 5 working days within Canada, 10 working days elsewhere within N. America and overseas within 20 working days.

The cost to CF personnel will not change from the current cost at Clothing Stores. Payment for the trial period, using the E-Commerce option, will be by major credit card only.

As the trial is entirely optional all the services presently offered by Clothing Stores will remain available. Detailed information concerning how to access the system and start-up date will be provided at a later date.

Questions and comments about this system should be directed to the Clothing-Online Project Office, rather than Base Clothing Stores, via E-mail: +Clothing Online Comments-DSSPM@ADMMAT <+Clothing%20Online%20Comments-DSSPM@ADM-Hull> DSSPM@Ottawa-Hull <mailto:DSSPM@Ottawa-Hull>. General information on the project can be found at the Clothing-Online DND Website: Go to the DGLEPM site and click on 'Projects'. OPI:

Habillement en ligne - Essai

Force régulière et personnel de Classe C seulement

À compter de janvier 2002, le MDN procédera à l'essai pour la vente et la livraison directe de certains articles UDE aux membres du personnel de la Force canadienne qui reçoivent une indemnité d'entretien de l'habillement (CUA). L'essai s'étendra à l'ensemble des FC et devrait se prolonger jusqu'à l'été 2002. Cet essai est entièrement optionnel, c'est-à-dire que les membres du personnel peuvent toujours recourir au magasin d'habillement pour acheter des articles UDE s'ils le désirent.

L'essai est une initiative du commerce électronique qui permet au personnel de commander et de payer des vêtements UDE par Internet à partir de leur résidence, ou à partir de leur lieu de travail par le biais du RID. Les commandes seront par la suite livrées directement à l'adresse choisie par le client. Les délais de livraison sont les suivants : cinq (5) jours ouvrables partout au Canada, 10 jours ouvrables ailleurs en Amérique du Nord et 20 jours ouvrables pour les destinations outre-mer.

Les coûts imputés au personnel des FC seront les mêmes que l'on retrouve dans les magasins d'habillement. Les paiements au cours de la période d'essai, par l'entremise du commerce électronique, seront effectués par cartes de crédit.

Puisque cet essai est entièrement optionnel, tous les services présentement offerts dans les magasins d'habillement sont toujours disponibles. De plus amples renseignements concernant l'accès au système et la date de mise en service vous seront fournis à une date ultérieure.

Pour toute question ou commentaire concernant ce système, communiquez avec le Bureau de projet de l'habillement en ligne, au lieu des magasins d'habillement des bases, par courriel à l'adresse suivante : +ClothingonlineComments-DSSPM@ADMMAT <mailto:+ClothingonlineComments-DSSPM@ADMMAT> DSSPM@Ottawa-Hull <mailto:DSSPM@Ottawa-Hull>. CFANS Update

By Capt Russ Defer & Capt JF Godbout

It has been some time since the last Voxair article from CFANS with several milestones having been passed; including three graduations, four commencements, and a mess dinner. The first to occur was the combined graduation of BANC 0002 and 0003. With 0002 facing delays due to multiple circumstances and 0003 being ahead of the program, the decision was made to have the two courses graduate together. One parade took place for both courses which was followed by a formal dinner at the Officer's Mess. The honour graduate for 0002 was Lt Gilles Couture who was posted to 415(MP) Sqn in Greenwood. 0002 included three members of the Republic of Singapore Air Force; 2Lt Min Yih Chua, 2Lt Bernard Lim and 2Lt Kee Wee Teng, all posted to 122 Transport Sqn. The other members were Lt Patrick Castonguay posted to 407(MP) Sqn in Comox, Lt Sasha Daikow who's off to 423(MH) Sqn in Shearwater and Lt Keith Miller who's staying in Winnipeg with 435(T&R). For 0003, the honour graduate was Lt Jody Hanson who was posted to 436 (T) Sqn in Trenton. The other members of course 0003 included Lt Adam Bruce posted to 405(MP) Sqn in Greenwood, Lt Colin Bylsma posted to 443(MH) Sqn in Esquimalt, and Lt Keith Fugger who's also in Greenwood with 405(MP) Sqn. On a side note, Lt Bruce was originally on 0002, but was delayed for medical reasons. With a combined grad, all eight students that started with BANC 0002 graduated together. Given an average success rate of about 70% for the BANC, this was no small feat.

BANC 0101 joined us in May with 6 students under the leadership of Capt Straub. BANC 0102 followed shortly after with 7 students and Capt Nicholauson got the honours as course director. BANC 0004 graduated at the end of July. The honour graduate was Lt(N) Brendon Clark of the Royal New Zealand Navy and he's returning home as an observer on the Super Seasprite. Brendon symbolizes the end of an era as the last student from New Zealand. Also graduating from 0004 were, Lt Craig Griffiths who's posted to 423(MH) Sqn in Shearwater, Lt Kevin Matheson off to 405(MP) Sqn in Greenwood, Lt Mike Sampson is now part of 429(T) Sqn Trenton, Lt Christine Saveland joins the ranks of 415(MP) Sqn in Greenwood and Lt Greg Surek is posted to 413 (T&R) Sqn, also in Greenwood.

This summer's posting season saw CFANS saying goodbye to several members, and hello to some new faces. Leaving us for other endeavours this summer were; Maj Paquet (retired from the military), Maj Heuthorst (recent promotion), Maj Milligan (recent promotion), Capt Forest (TDO), Capt Larocque, Capt McIntosh, Capt McMillan, Capt Monk (Admin O), FLT Roberts (RNZAF), and Capt Slaunwhite. To fill some of the gaps left from the outgoing members we were joined by Maj Northrup, Capt Burt, Capt Godbout, Capt Hodge, Capt James (TDO), Capt Maskell, Capt Porteus (Admin O), and Capt Schofield.

Two more courses joined CFANS late in the summer; 0103 with Capt Campbell as the course director and 0104 with Capt Stover going for round two as a course director. CFANS continues to recruit training from foreign nations. 0103 includes two students from Germany and two from Norway, a first for both nations (welcome aboard). The next CFANS grad wasn't until 9 November with BANC 0006. The honour graduate for 0006 was Lt Jen Pare who's posted to 423(MH) Sqn in Shearwater. Jen took a clean sweep of all the trophies for her course, including the infamous "Bonehead" award. Other graduates from 0006 included Lt Brad Beauchamp who's off to 415(MP) Sqn, Lt Jo Bouchard posted to 405(MP) Sqn, and Lt Vince Primeau also off to 415(MP) Sqn, all in Greenwood. The list continues with Lt Lesley Ridgway posted to 429(T) Sqn in Trenton and Lt Luc Vachon going to the west coast with 407(MP) Sqn in Comox. CFANS also graduated its first member of the Republic of South Korea Air Force with Maj Bong Hwan Kim (promoted to that rank while on course). Maj Kim has returned to Korea to serve with the 259th Tactical Airlift Sqn in Pusan.

Junior Ranks Christmas Dinner

By Karen Poetker

The year came to a close with the Junior Ranks Christmas Dinner, held on December 12, allowing three Privates to take command of the Wing for the duration of dinner.

Filling in as the 17 Wing Commander was Pte Brewer, an MSE Op from WTN. After a rousing speech, he took the opportunity to give the Jr Ranks the rest of the afternoon off.

Pte Lavoie from CFS Met played the role of Colonel Van Ruiten. Reminding the guests of his duties as 17 Wing Honorary Colonel, he said, "As Honorary Colonel, I attended many parties this year on your behalf and I want to assure you that the people out there are very proud of all of your accomplishments."

The position of 17 Wing Chief Warrant Officer was filled by Pte Squires from 435 Sqn, who told CWO Emond that he was going to mix the plum pudding with the 'pop,' and then proceeded to do so.

According to the Wing's CWO, the dinner was exceptional and a fun time for all in attendance. CWO Emond would like to thank all the servers, cooks and other kitchen staff that "once again did an excellent job and allowed everyone to leave the dining area with a full belly."

Professional Development Courses Available

By Kenn Garrity, CFCCN/RMC Coordinator

I hope your holiday season was filled with good food, good company and lots of super presents. It is hard to believe another year has come and gone. All too soon it is time to get back to the rigours of regular work. Maybe this year is the one that will see you continue or even begin your continuing education in preparation for tomorrow.

Red River College holds the promise of offering a couple of opportunities right here on base. All that is required is the interest of eight to ten people who would like to study any particular subject and Red River will import an instructor to our facilities to teach it. Even the timings are negotiable; we can do it over lunch, over supper, on Saturday or in the evenings. You simply need to contact your CFCCN/RMC Coordinator and we'll advertise the possibilities and see what can be arranged.

The upcoming Management Development Certificate Program courses from Seneca College, which will be offered on base are listed below. These courses will be held 0800-1630 hrs., Saturday & Sunday on the dates listed, on the third floor of Bldg. 62 (Base Hospital) and the cost is around $175.00. For additional information gimme a call at 833-2500 ext: 5115.

- Personal Success - 16-17 Feb 02
- Management for Results - 2-3 Mar 02
- Human Relations - 27-28 Apr 02
- Teambuilding & Leadership - 25-26 May 02

Regular college courses from any of our "network colleges" can be counted towards diplomas/certificates from Red River, (and vice-versa), and that means they qualify for reimbursement for those members eligible under DAOD 5031-3. If you want to find out how this works, call me at 833-2500 ext. 5115, or the BPSO's Office on base at 833-2500 ext. 5247. Others who are employed might ask their supervisors if any funds are available for professional development that might help defray the cost of your education.

Perhaps none of these courses interest you, but you would really like to get your education underway in 2002, regardless.

There are literally hundreds of programs offered by correspondence that might be of interest to you. Why not give me a call? I can research the college calendars from all our network colleges for you and get you the details on program content, start dates and procedures. If you would like to do your own research, a catalogue of courses offered by Network colleges is available for you to review in the BPSO Office (Building 52) or by appointment in my office, or you can access RRC website yourself. My office hours are every Thursday from 0900-1700 and I'm available at other times by appointment.

A reminder to all that Red River College remains committed to bringing new courses out to Base Winnipeg in response to demonstrated demand. If you and several others would like to see a course or program here, start the process by letting me know. I pass along these comments to people at the college, as this kind of input is very important for their decision-making every year. Call me now with your suggestions.

Remembering Trout

Captain Christopher Norman Brown, CD
15 May 1961 - 20 December 2001

Captain Christopher Norman Brown, or "Trout" as he was known to his legion of friends, lived a very full, yet too short life. Born in Hertfordshire England on May 15 1961, he immigrated to Canada with his parents at the age of seven and characteristically never lost his Englishness. He retained his accent and Anglo-centric view of the world throughout his life, traits that distinguished him greatly from his Western Canadian peers. Following a short and unfulfilling stint as a draftsman, he enrolled at Mount Royal College in Calgary to pursue his life long passion, aviation. He struggled to finance this costly program but persevered with the assistance of family and friends, which he never forgot. Graduation from Mount Royal College during a severe downturn in the civilian aviation market led Chris to enter the Air Force in 1986 as a pilot trainee, a decision he never regretted. Earning his pilot's wings in 1988, he was selected to serve initially as a flying instructor on the Tutor jet trainer in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. He distinguished himself as an instructor earning a coveted "A2" instructional rating, but more notably for his sagacity, sense of humour and easy rapport with the timorous students. Accordingly, he was frequently assigned to instruct the students experiencing difficulty, achieving an impressive success rate, and a number of Air Force pilots owe their careers to Chris' patient instruction, frequently delivered with tension breaking humour. During this instructional posting, Chris' wisdom failed him on one notable occasion when he, along with an impressionable colleague, elected to heckle the guest speaker at an Air Force mess dinner, a very formal affair. The guest speaker, who happened to be the Minister of National Defense, was pontificating on his earlier experiences with grain movements as Minister of Agriculture, when Chris loudly suggested that perhaps the Minister was better suited to movements of a more scatological nature. The following morning brought more than the usual hangover as the Base Commander spewed invective at the two impertinent young Captains. Interestingly, the Minister in question retired shortly after this mess dinner, and Chris would always proclaim that it was as a direct result of the eviscerating treatment he received in Moose Jaw at the hands of two tipsy Captains.

Following this instructional posting, Chris was transferred to Cold Lake Alberta where he briefly flew the CF-5 aircraft. He was next assigned to the staff of Exercise Maple Flag where he toiled for two years successfully orchestrating the world's largest tactical flying exercise. After this unwelcome non-flying assignment, he returned to flying duties with the venerable T-33 with 414 Combat Support Squadron in Comox, British Columbia. Here, as in Moose Jaw, he quickly distinguished himself as an accomplished aviator and a cherished leader blessed with a quick wit and a genuine concern for all Squadron members. He quickly became a respected mentor to the younger pilots and electronic warfare officers and his admiration for the maintenance and support members of the Squadron assisted him greatly in his duties as the Deputy Squadron Operations Officer. The respect afforded him by the Combat Support community following this posting was amply demonstrated when he was assigned as the 1 Canadian Air Division standards officer for the T-33, located at Cold Lake, Alberta.

Some of the more notable aspects of Chris' character were his refined intellect and expansive knowledge of a number of diverse subjects, which made him a superb and vastly entertaining conversationalist. Chris was remarkably well read, and while never pompous, could elaborate on many subjects, from aviation, to automobiles, to mountaineering, to economic policy to current events. He could tell you in detail, for example, the performance differences and the political implications associated with the Rolls Royce Spey-engined F-4 Phantoms of the Royal Air Force and the standard J-79 engined Phantoms. His love of and skill with the English language was legendary. He was very much multi-syllabic and reveled in finding the appropriate use of an obscure, yet entirely accurate word. That he managed to accompany this refined skill with copious quotations from Monty Python, Dudley Moore, Peter Cook, and other English comics only added to his impressive reputation for entertaining at various levels.

Chris was more, however, than an accomplished aviator and leader, gifted with a refined intellect and a razor sharp wit. He was also a devoted husband to Sabre, a committed son to Valerie and Norman, a proud brother of Nick, and a very loyal and reliable friend to many. I will always remember how Chris could be relied upon in good times and in bad times, providing support, a kind word, or a much needed laugh as required.

Many, whose lives he has enriched immeasurably, will miss him.

17 Wing Chapel Welcomes WYD Cross

By Padre Guy Chapdelaine

Those travelling down Whytefold Road early on the morning of Thursday, 10 January would have passed a huge cross at the junction with Silver Avenue, on the east side of Whytefold. What was this cross and why were people gathered so early on even a pleasant January morning in Manitoba? This was the World Youth Day cross, welcomed on its journey to Toronto.

The 17 Wing Community Chapel welcomed the World Youth Day Cross with celebrations over 9 and 10 January. The first took place at the cenotaph of Kapyong Barracks at 1900 hours on 9 January, led by the 2 PPCLI Chaplain, Padre Brad Busch. He was the first Lutheran minister ever to preside at a service of prayer on the occasion of a visit to Canada of the World Youth Day Cross. At 2000 hours the cross was carried to the North-Site chapel, on Silver Street. There, Padre Guy Chapdelaine, the Roman Catholic Chapel Life Co-ordinator presided at an ecumenical service with 100 members of both the Roman Catholic and Protestant congregations. Padre Doug Ohs, Wing Chaplain, Padre John Wilcox, 1 CAD Chaplain, Padre Terry Cherwick and Padre Brad Busch participated in the service of prayer. The service opened with greetings, then the cross was carried in by a group of youth who will represent 17 Wing at the World Youth Day in Toronto next July. At 2100 hours, the youth choir of St Mary's Cathedral led "the Taize Prayer Service", a service of prayers in song, very popular among the youth. This opportunity to receive the message through the beauty of music was a moving experience for all present.

Early on the morning of 10 January a group of military personnel and 17 Wing Community Chapel parishioners gathered at the corner of Whytefold and Silver to highlight the visit of the World Youth Day Cross to 17 Wing and, at the same time, to give personnel arriving at 17 Wing an opportunity to see the cross that will be at the centre of the youth-gathering in Toronto 22 to 28 July, 2002. Guests of honour at the display were the Wing Commander, Wing Administration Officer, Wing Logistics Officer, Wing Operations Officer, Wing Honorary Colonel and Wing Chief Warrant Officer. Several of the young people who will be attending, and their chaperones, were also present.

For 17 years, the World Youth Day Cross has touched all five continents and traversed seven countries, serving as a central symbol and an effective catalyst for the preparation of World Youth Days. In 1984, Pope John Paul II entrusted a simple wooden cross to the youth of the world. This cross, like every other, reminds us of God's great love for His people.

At the conclusion of Palm Sunday mass in St Peter's Square on 8 April, 2001, young people of Rome handed over the World Youth Day Cross to their Canadian peers, in preparation for the next World Youth Day. The cross arrived in Manitoba 29 December and has been shared here by the Archdioceses of Winnipeg and St. Boniface, the Ukrainian Archeparchy, and the Military Ordinariate parishes. It left the province on 14 January. We at 17 Wing were honoured to have this symbol of faith 9 and 10 January, 2002.

Young Christians from over 150 countries are expected to converge on Toronto for World Youth Day 2002 to learn about and to celebrate their faith. Celebrations will culminate with a closing mass celebrated by the Pope, His Holiness John Paul II, in Downview Park. Downview is the site of the former Canadian Forces Base Toronto (also known as the Royal Canadian Air Force Station Downview, prior to integration of the three military services). Participation in all events is expected to exceed 750,000.

Wing TISS Connects

By Capt Kilmeny Jones

It has been quite a while since we connected last; like every-one else, we've been busy.

December 2001 contains a date that has great significance to members of the Communications and Electronics Branch of the CF. It's a date that is also of significance to a great many Newfoundlanders out there. On 12 December 1901, Guglielmo Marconi received the first trans-atlantic wireless signal from Poldhu in Cornwall (south-western England) at Signal

Hill, just outside of St John's, Newfoundland. The signal in question was a morse code "S" - three short "dots" of sound. The receiving antennae was suspended by a kite flying above a disused military hospital, and the signal received was faint, but the experiment was repeated several times that day and the next few, and contemporary physics was thrown for a loop. To that point, scientists had understood that wireless signals travelled in straight lines - this meant that the signal from England should have headed off into space and been lost. Instead, it bounced off a layer of the earth's atmosphere - the ionosphere - and headed back down. Thus were long-distance radio communications born. Marconi had earlier patented equipment for short-distance wireless communications and formed a company to supply various navies of the world with his invention. He is justly called the "Father of Radio".

Radio has occupied a fair bit of Wing TISS's attention of late.

We spent a significant period of the last couple months wrestling with a high frequency antennae sited in Headingley. A new one was installed just before the snow hit, with the aim of providing navigation training communications to CFANS. (Our antenna is held up by a tower and guy wires, rather than a kite.)

We have also been working with underground communications. In October, we were privileged to be able to host a crew from the Joint Signals Regiment out of Edmonton who dropped by to upgrade some of our voice and data infrastructure. From a WTISS point of view, this infrastructure consists of several underground cables. Each of these cables is theoretically capable of supporting 600 to 1800 phones - when we say "cable", we think big. (The number of phones is theoretical, since the cables are used to provide all other distributed communications on the Wing as well CONTINUED ON P 15

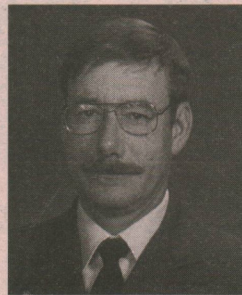

402 Squadron Award Winners

By 2Lt Faubert

Winners of the Vernon James Bastable Memorial Award and the Jack Reeves Memorial Award were announced at the 402 Squadron mess dinner held in October 2001. Mcpl Schwartz (reserve) and Cpl Jack Scott (Reg F) were recipients of the awards presented for outstanding performance in the areas of trade skills, leadership, dress and deportment.

Cpl Scott is an aviation technician with AMO who demonstrated extraordinary skills in supervision, mentoring and team building far beyond his rank level. Cpl Scott said he was very pleased to be a recipient and had no notion that his name was submitted.

Mcpl Schwartz echoed Cpl Scott's comment that his win came "out of the blue" and that he had no idea he was being considered. Mcpl Schwartz' attitude and work habits were key. He is often the first to work and the last to leave, always willing to help others and complete tasks outside his trades specification. Mcpl Schwartz is an 11-year veteran of the reserves, who has spent the last five years of his career with 402 Sqn.

Each year, supervisors select a deserving individual by providing a write-up to the Awards committee for consideration. The winner's picture is displayed in 402's Hall of Fame.

The Jack Reeves Memorial Award was first presented in 1974, in honour of reserve pilot, Captain Jack Reeves, CD. While flying a single engine Otter aircraft, he lost his life in a tragic accident at Swallow Lake on March 19, 1974.

The Vernon James Bastable Award was first presented in 1993 when 402 Sqn became a reserve/regular force unit. This award was designed to complement the Jack Reeves Award. Flying Officer Vernon James Bastable, MC, joined the RCAF in March 1941 and found himself flying bombing missions with 106 Squadron of the RAF. When the 402 "City of Winnipeg" Squadron was reactivated in November 1946, he was one of the first to join the reserve unit. He lost his life at Stevenson Airfield on March 27, 1949 while flying a Vampire aircraft.

THE WILDFLOWERS OF THE UKRAINE AWARDED NARBUT PRIZE.

Ukraine's Top Stamp for 2000

By Alf Brooks

A souvenir sheet showing a young woman adorned with flowers, "The Wildflowers of the Ukraine," was awarded the Narbut prize for the best Ukrainian stamp issued in 2000.

Hryhoryi Narbut designed three of the first Ukrainian stamps, the 30, 40 and 50 shahiv values. Antin Sereda designed the 10 and 20 shahiv stamps; they were issued in 1918 as the country declared its short-lived independence from the collapsed Russian Empire; the Bolshevik Red Army soon forced the Ukraine into the USSR.

Reservists part of our team

By Captain Deanna Manson, 1 CAD HQ

Out of a roster of twenty-one players, the 17 Wing Women's Hockey Team is comprised of not only Regular Force personnel from both the Air and Army environments, but almost one-quarter of the team are Reservists. We have one member of the militia (17 Medical Company) and three members of the Air Reserve, most of whom are employed at 1 CAD HQ. Newly promoted Sgt Cindy Kennedy joined the team last year and quickly distinguished herself as an assistant captain and leader of our defence. Although only her second year playing hockey, she has returned to the ice this season with a notable slapshot and great leadership on the ice.

Sgt Kennedy is originally from Brandon, MB, where she started out as a rink rat playing shinny hockey at the age of 11 at her local community centre. Most of the time she was the only girl out there (in figure skates to boot), but learned quickly the importance of keeping her head up. She joined the Land Reserves in 1989 as an 831 Admin Clerk and then transferred to the Air Reserve in 1995. She has enjoyed postings at MTC Dundurn, CFB Wainwright, CFB Shilo, Connaught Range Ottawa and several contracts at CFB Borden. Cindy returned to 17 Wing in APS 00 and took a Class B contract with the Military Police Section in 1 CAD HQ.

Her contribution to the team is not limited to her leadership on the ice and in the dressing room. Cindy is known for her sense of "ha ha" and quick wit that keeps everyone on their toes. Her joke telling very quickly gets the girls in stitches, which keeps the mood jovial in the dressing room. That said, she is quick to get her game face on once it is time to get down to business. Welcome back to you, Cindy, and we are happy to have you on the blue line!

Note that participation of Reservists on the base teams is limited to those on Class B contracts for regional and national competitions. This policy is currently under review, however, as the international sports program (CISM) is open to Reservists on Class A contracts. Our team hopes to hear a resolution to this incongruity in the near future.

17 Wing Coach Honoured

By Karen Poelker

17 Wing volleyball coach Lori Ann Mundt was awarded the title of CF International Female Coach of the Year at an awards banquet held November 3rd, 2001 in Ottawa.

Mundt, who has been with 17 Wing since 1996, said she was surprised and delighted by the award. It was the first time such awards were presented to CF coaches to thank them for their service, and the distinction was well received.

"It's voluntary and I coach because I enjoy it. I love the sport and I love to teach the sport to other people. It was a total surprise to me, and quite an honour," stated Mundt. "Being the first recipient means a lot."

Mundt was a member of Canada's National Volleyball Team, which showcased its skills in the Atlanta Olympics in 1996. She hosted a volleyball clinic for the CISM teams in 1993, so after retiring from the National Team, she joined 17 Wing, taking up the position as head coach in the summer of 1999 for the World Military Games.

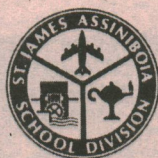

"We have a World Military Games every four years, which is like our Olympics. It involves thousands of athletes, so it's quite an honour for the athletes to be a part of and something they should take pride in," commented Mundt.

The team competed at the World Championships in Italy and finished fourth out of four teams. However, as Mundt is quick to point out, military duties, particularly in response to the events of September 11th, often make it more difficult to find practice time.

"We only train three or four times a year. It is hard to get people off duty, so preparing a team involves choosing enough players to be able to manage if a few are unable to participate at the time."

Noting that many opposing teams are equipped with professional athletes, Mundt says that CISM is a program that allows players who would not necessarily be able to compete on a national level to do so, and this is one of the many reasons Mundt feels the CISM sports program is so significant.

"CISM is all about friendship through sport. That, and the players get to experience working together as a team," she said. Awarded with a glass trophy and an engraved gold watch, Mundt praises those that helped her to gain such distinction. "I would like to acknowledge my assistant coach, the team managers and athletes. Without their hard work, support and dedication to the program, the program wouldn't be where it is now."

> Connect to what matters, volunteer in 2002!

Volunteering is the most fundamental act of citizenship and philanthropy in our society. It is offering time, energy and skills of one's own free will. Volunteers impact every aspect of the Military Family Support Program.

The time to decide is now. Decide to get involved in 2002.

Think about your interests, the things you care about, the needs of your community, and the people you know. Then make the decision to make a difference to the military lifestyles. Resolve to be involved in 2002 and tell a friend! Join the Military Family Resource Centre's Volunteer Team!

> Looking for work? Volunteer!

Where can you gain valuable, marketable and highly transferable skills that can assist you in competing in the Job Market? By being a volunteer!

By volunteering you allow yourself to become a part of the system that most employment opportunities come from, the Hidden Job Market.

How can you use your Volunteer experience to assist you in finding a job:

1. Is your volunteer experience on your resume? If it isn't, be sure to promote it as a position that you could be have been paid for. If you were providing administrative support, bookkeeping or special events support...these are all highly marketable skills that need to be promoted.
2. Are you changing your career path? What a better way to discover what interests you than by volunteering in the occupational sector that interests you. If you are interested in the medical sector...look at volunteering in hospitals, nursing homes or social service agencies to decide if it is really what you would like to do.
3. Not looking for paid employment right now? By volunteering you are still keeping your skills fresh. You will have opportunities to challenge your skills and develop the areas that may need improvement.
4. The power of networking. When you volunteer you will meet a number of people that are in tune with employment opportunities. Many volunteers find paid employment as a result of their experience.
5. Busy people find jobs! The saying that looking for work is a full-time job is very true. By keeping busy and involved with in a volunteer organization you will come across opportunities that other individuals may not find.

For more information on how you can best utilize your volunteer skills and experiences to assist you with finding employment contact John Chabih at 489-7003 or base local 2494.

Wearing a ribbon shows members of the military and their families that you value their contribution to our country and the world.

ASH WEDNESDAY

13 FEBRUARY 2002

Please join us at the Wing Chapel to celebrate the beginning of Lent at the following times:

Ecumenical Service - 1200 hrs
Bring your lunch. Coffee, tea, hot chocolate, juice will be provided.

Mass - 1900 hrs

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, which lasts for forty days. On Ash Wednesday, ashes from the burning of palms from the previous year's Passion (Palm) Sunday are blessed and placed on the people's forehead as a sign of penance. In the early Church, public penance was performed by people wearing sackcloth, who were then sprinkled with ashes. As public penance gradually died out in about the eleventh century, the custom of receiving ashes at the beginning of Lent gradually came into being.

The Consequences of Impaired Driving

By Cpl Colleen Wright, Community Relations, Military Police

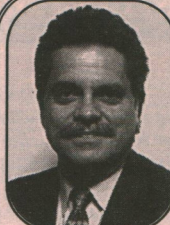

The Province of Manitoba is now considered one of the more severe provinces when it comes to punishing impaired driving offenders. On 1 Dec 01, several new impaired driving laws came into effect within this province. To help you understand the consequences of some of these new laws, consider the following sequence of events that happens to someone stopped for impaired driving:

1ST TIME IMPAIRED DRIVER OFFENDER

WHAT HAPPENS TO YOU?	WHEN DOES THIS HAPPEN?	WHAT'S THE COST TO YOU?
A peace officer has stopped you and begun processing you for impaired driving at the local police agency	The moment you made that fatal decision to drive your vehicle after you had a few drinks	One person said that it was the most stressful period in their life. Another said they have never been so scared in their life.
Your driver's licence is suspended for a period of 24-hours	Immediately	Wait for it...
This 24-hour suspension period prohibits you from operating any motorized vehicle, which also includes off-road vehicles, heavy equipment machinery and includes any type of DND vehicle. If you have a DND 404 it is also suspended for that 24-hour period.
The vehicle you were operating is seized for 30 days	Immediately	Read on...
The vehicle is towed by an independent towing company	Immediately	$53.50
The vehicle is stored at an impound lot for a period of 30 days	Immediately	$393.86
If you're a member of the Canadian Forces, you must inform your CO that you have been charged with a Criminal Code offence	Next working day	Current career implications? Only you may know.
You are allotted a period of 6 days to make alternate arrangements for your future transportation needs.	After the initial 24 hour suspension period	$3.30 Daily bus cost (to/from) $61.60 Monthly bus pass $15.30 Average taxi fare (to/from)
Your driver's licence is now suspended for the remainder of the 90 days administrative suspension	On the 8th day	Multiply one of the above modes of transportation by 83 $273.90 Daily bus cost (to/from) $184.80 3 Month bus pass $1269.90 Average taxi fare(to/from)
You must appear before an Identification Technician at a police agency to have your photograph and fingerprints taken for the purposes of The Identification of Criminals Act	Within 35 days	This is the start of your criminal record
With a guilty conviction, you will be prohibited from driving any motor vehicle for a period of 1 year. The province of MB referentially suspends your driver's licence for the same period of time and if you have a DND 404 it is also referentially revoked by Wing authorities.	Upon receipt of your guilty conviction	Multiply one of the above modes of transportation by 365 $1204.50 Daily bus cost (to/from) $739.20 12 Month bus passes $5584.50 Average taxi fare(to/from)
Your guilty conviction usually comes with a fine and administration fee	Upon receipt of your guilty conviction	$600 Average Fine $92 Average Administration Fee
The MB Driver and Vehicle Licencing department requires that you attend the Addictions Foundation of MB Impaired Driving Program	After your court appearance and guilty conviction	$300
You'll have a criminal record for a minimum of 5 years	The date of your guilty conviction	It may cost you a future employment/volunteer opportunity or entry denial, or even detention if you try to enter into the USA without a USA Entry Waiver.
You have to apply to have your driver's licence re-instated	After the 1 year prohibition period expires	10 Demerit Points $300 Surcharge on those points $48 Reinstatement Fee $60 Licencing Fee $130 Restricted Licence application
You have to apply to have your driver's licence re-instated	After the 1 year prohibition period expires	10 Demerit Points $300 Surcharge on those points $48 Reinstatement Fee $60 Licencing Fee $130 Restricted Licence application
You apply for vehicle registration	After the 1 year prohibition period expires	Loose any deductions that you had
Your mental health and well-being and that of your family members	From the moment you were stopped	You, your co-workers and family members will also be affected
You apply for a pardon... It can take from 3 to 9 months to gather the vital papers and from 12 to 20 months to be granted your pardon	You are eligible to apply 5 years after the date of your criminal disposition	Pardon costs range from $53.50 to $363.80

Throughout this entire process, who is going to be driving your children to their soccer games, hockey practices, or music lessons? When's the next time you'll be popping in unexpectedly to watch them play in a basketball game? How do you plan on getting out to your cottage or the beach on the long weekend? You certainly won't be driving anywhere for a vacation this summer. As you can see, one fatal decision to drink and drive has consequences that are immeasurable. The ultimate price to pay for this type of poor decision is your life, the life of a family member, friend, or that of a stranger.

There's always an alternate plan to you drinking and driving, use it, if not for your sake, then for your family.

> FROM P 10, "Wing TISS Connects"

- for instance, LAN connections.) The JSR upgraded "Cable 12", which runs from Building 86 throughout the barracks and messes and so on, and then across Whytefold to Building 90 and the Canex. The upgrade involved hauling out over 1000 meters of old cable, and replacing it with new, increasing the theoretical phone capacity for this area to around 1200 in the process - assuming that nothing but phones were required. The job required the linemen to spend considerable lengths of time down in the manholes on base, yanking out the old stuff, and feeding in new. Once the lines were in place, they all had to be properly connected to the communications distribution points in the buildings they service. This was a big job, involving a lot of heavy work, and took just about a month to complete. Our thanks to the Joint Signals Regiment, who came back a short time later to put up the Headingly antenna!
