YOU AND THE LAW OF WAR

VOUS ET LE DROIT DE LA GUERRE

Office of The Judge Advocate General Cabinet du Juge Avocat Général

(CFP) -- First in a series -- It has been said artillery adds dignity to what would otherwise be a vulgar brawl! In the same vein, the laws applicable in war serve to distinguish the legitimate application of force by disciplined organized military forces from criminal attacks by armed rabble such as bandits or terrorists.

History shows that nations have never hesitated to defend or further their perceived national interests by resorting to war. As man's ingenuity invented newer weapons of warfare making it easier for him to kill his fellow man, nations became aware of a need to prevent unnecessary death, suffering and destruction of property on the battlefield. Newer concepts of warfare have also shown the need to attempt to limit such death, suffering and destruction in places other than the battlefield as well. This need is a reflection of military interests and of the moral values of civilized man held by most peoples of the world, and these have evolved into binding customs and formal written treaties which are collectively referred to as the law of war, or more recently the laws of armed conflict. These laws are legally binding upon virtually all governments and their forces including Canada.

Although the laws of armed conflict are certainly not new, they are either largely unknown or, at least, misunderstood. Take yourself, for example. How do you view these laws?

- As restrictions to accomplishing the mission and defeating the enemy?
- As a set of humanitarian principles applicable to some people, or to all people?
- As rules which, if violated, could make you liable to prosecution or cost you your career?
- As a problem for legal officers or diplomats only?

Do you believe that adherence to the laws of armed conflict only truly matters if there is a clear winner and loser in war? Should we abide by these laws when fighting guerillas who do not also abide by or respect them?

Since Canada has agreed to abide by and respect the laws applicable in armed conflict, violating those rules is the same as violating the laws of Canada. While all Canadians have an obligation to know and understand those rules and to abide by them, members of the Canadian Forces must be especially aware of them. It is intended to publish a series of articles in this newspaper to assist today's serviceman and servicewoman to know and understand a few of the basic principles of the laws applicable in armed conflict. The next article will give a brief historical review of their early development. This is a good time to mention that while the term "law of war" is being increasingly replaced by "law of armed conflict", they are not exactly synonymous but will be used interchangeably in these articles.

ANNUAL GIRL GUIDE BANQUET HELD -- April 29, 1980, saw all the young Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders gathered together for their yearly banquet. President of the Alsask Local Association Mrs. Lynn Dansereau greeted everyone, thanked them for coming and called on Rev. David Nevett to say grace. As the food was being served, Brownie Janet London presented District Commissioner Mrs. Doreen Boyd of Kindersley with a corsage. Mrs. Dansereau then introduced the head table guests: Rev. Nevett, Community Council representative Duncan Mackintosh, Mrs. Zoria Novakowski, Mrs. Boyd, Commanding Officer L. Novakowski, Lions Club representative Gordon Denney, Mrs. Dansereau, and L.A. Vice-President Mrs. Lorraine Woolf. Other L.A. Executive members were Sec.-Tres. Mrs. Marge Horton, Social Convener Sheryl Cote, and Phone Committee member Mrs. Linda Lindal. Mrs. Dansereau also introduced the Guiders, without whom this organization could not operate: for Pathfinders, Mrs. Virginia Schaefer and Miss Florence Menzies; for Guides, Mrs. Daphne Ready-Dael and Mrs. Claire Malczewski; and for Brownies, Mrs. Daphne Coombs, Mrs. Brenda Holmstrom and Mrs. Sandi Petitpas.

After the meal, Pathfinder Elena Thomas gave the toast to the Queen. A toast to the parents was given by Guides Jacquie Lindal and Karen Christman and answered with a toast to the daughters by Mr. Dave Christman.

Appreciation certificates were given out by the Local Association, Guides, Brownies and Pathfinders to the following groups or individuals for various types of help: Mrs. Gwen Hornsby, Mr. Roy Pigden and the Combined Mess staff, Community Council, Lions Club, Ladies Guild, Mrs. Judy Evans, Mr. John Horton, and Mr. Ted Jones. Mrs. Dansereau presented Mrs. Brenda Holmstrom and Mrs. Daphne Ready-Dael with farewell gifts. They will be greatly missed in the Guiding organization. Each group of girls provided entertainment with little skits or songs. Mrs. Boyd and LCol. Novakowski gave short speeches of thanks for being invited. The Guide Leaders called on Mrs. Boyd to present Guides Jaquie Lindal and Karen Christman with their All Around Cords. Guide Sheryle Schaefer received the All Around Guide Plaque. Pathfinders Elena Thomas, Catherine Schaefer and Lynnette Schaefer received Canada Cords. The Pathfinders then presented Mrs. Boyd with a gift.

Many thanks to Ted Jones for taking pictures and to the fathers who helped serve the meal and clean up afterward: Garnet Lindal, Fred Thomas, John Dooley, Wayne Watson, Wayne Hornsby and Len Warner.

GIT ALONG LITTLE AIRPLANES? -- The annual Alsask Rodeo & Armed Forces Day will be held on Sunday, June 1, at the Alsask Rodeo Grounds. The fun begins at 7 a.m. with a pancake breakfast sponsored by the Meridian Saddle Club. Rodeo events begin at 1:30 p.m., with a fly-past by CF-101 Voodoo and CT-114 Tudor aircraft scheduled for 3 p.m. In addition, there will be various displays by 743 Communication Squadron, Canadian Armed Forces Recruiting Unit, and SAR helicopters, a midway by Loran Gay Time Shows, and aerial displays by two biplanes and a skydiver. The day will conclude with the Lions barbecue supper at 5 p.m. Admission prices are as follows: Adults $4.00 Students $3.00 Family $15.00 Pre-Schoolers Free. Service personnel in uniform will also be admitted free of charge.

This annual event is intended to have a bit of something to interest everyone, both civilian and military, of all ages. Come on out and enjoy a day of fun! It's for you!

THE VOLUNTEER FIRE FIGHTER

The fire fighter who volunteers is he who works all day
And wants to save his neighborhood without reward or pay;
Who always is available to jump right up and go
Whenever warning bells ring out, or fire whistles blow.
He braves the blaze and fights the smoke with all his energy,
To save as much as possible of life and property.
And whether flames are quickly quenched or only ruins stand,
The volunteer will linger there to lend a helping hand.
He does not look for credit or a medal on his chest,
But he would be the neighbor true who tries to do his best.

A MESSAGE FROM THE MASTER GOPHER

LCol L.E. Novakowski

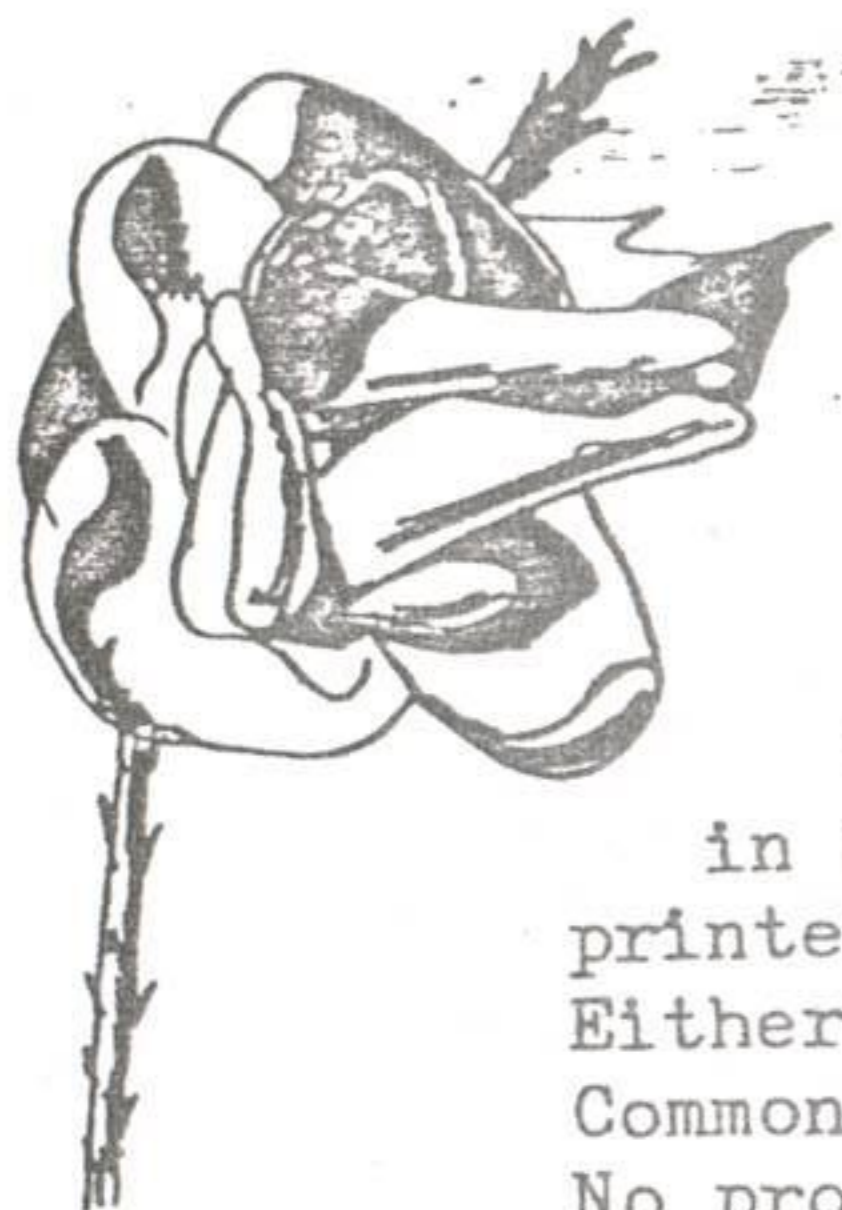

During a recent inspection of the PMQ area I was very pleased to see that many residents are doing extra things to improve and beautify their yards. It certainly adds to the quality of life at Alsask and I encourage everyone to do the same. Being very dry this spring, it's a challenge just to keep lawns green but with proper care and attention it can be done even though we have restricted watering periods. I hope people will make arrangements with neighbors to water their lawns when they will be away for any length of time.

This summer we should see a significant improvement in the outward appearance of the station. The Roads and Grounds Section has been working extra hard and we're planning an extensive paint program. Hopefully we'll have all the necessary resources available at the right time so that we can do a first class job. I'm confident that newcomers will get a good first impression of the station to complement the traditional Alsask warm welcome.

In closing, I would like to encourage everyone to participate in the local Rodeo and Armed Forces Day.

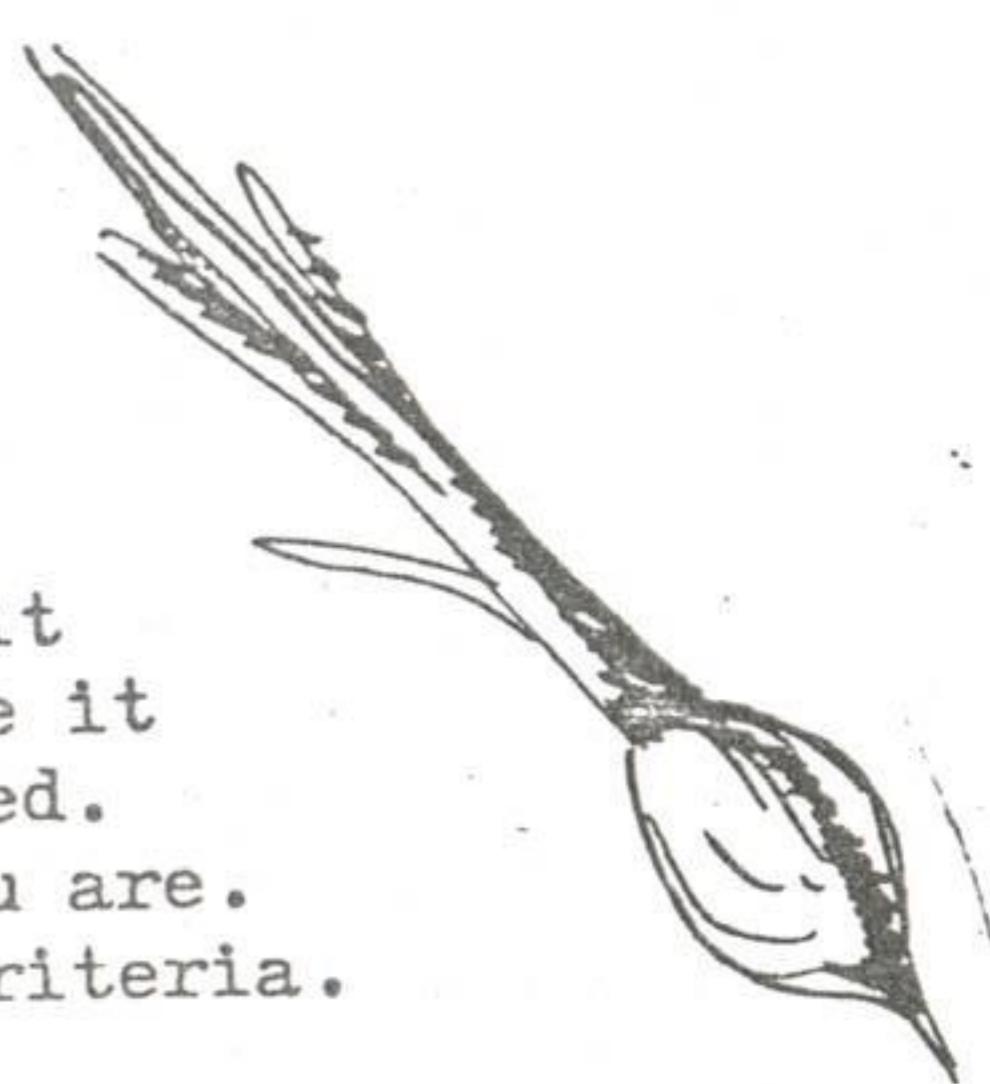

CFS Alsask receives the Air Command Safe Driving Trophy. The award reads: "To the Station having achieved the lowest overall MSE accident rate in the Command. Your record of 0 accidents in 400,157 km. is indeed an achievement."

ROSES & ONIONS

by Chief-E

Got a gripe? Want to say a special thank you? Congratulate a buddy? Put it in writing and send it to me. You can have it printed anonymously, or with your name included. Either way, you must sign it so I know who you are. Common courtesy and good taste are the only criteria. No profanity!

"A bouquet of Roses to Daphne Coombs, Sandi Petitpas, Becky Butt and those who assisted them in making the Brownie camp a great success. The girls had a lot of fun and will be looking forward to next year."

"A bouquet of roses to Dave Garland and staff for allowing the Beavers to tour the fire hall."
Beavers and Leaders

RAMBLINGS OF GORDON

A community the size of CFS Alsask requires a lot of volunteer work to keep it at a standard that makes it fit to live in. All this volunteer work has to come from people who are willing to devote time, patience and skill to accomplish whatever task they take on. But it seems that 5% of the people here are doing 100% of the work. This 5% work constantly, devotedly and very hard to ensure that the other 95% have it as comfortable as possible while serving their tour at CFS Alsask.

Because they are volunteers they do not wish any recognition other than to see their project become a success. Quite often those deserving people will step back when the time comes to receive recognition. Other times they are pushed back so others less deserving can take the spotlight. And, let's face it, there are people who work quite well as long as someone keeps telling them that they're doing a fine job.

The ballots for the last Community Council elections also carried a slip of paper that allowed you to help ferret out those people who shun recognition. I was disappointed that some people returned empty sheets, but by the same token I was pleased that numerous people, who might otherwise have been missed, were pointed out. The out-going Community Council sat as a group and chose 8 members of the community to receive a special Community Council Award. These people are special in that the community said they deserve recognition; they are also special in that they are volunteers. The Council regrets that it cannot recognize all nominees with a certificate, but it does recognize all volunteered help. Without it we cannot function.

It gives me great pleasure at this time to inform you of the names of the recipients and why they received your award. I'm sure you'll agree with the results.

1. Sandy Cochrane. The Editor in Chief of the Tumbleweed. This gentleman stood firm where others would buckle. He backed his writers and fought many a battle to improve and provide you with a paper to be proud of and worth reading.
2. Bonnie Cochrane. Assistant Editor of the Tumbleweed. Bonnie spent many, many long hours sorting, planning, fighting for a paper that gives you news, entertainment and information about the community.
3. Jean Smith. Swimming Instructor and Life Guard. How many people here in Alsask have Jean to thank for teaching them and their children to swim? I'm sure they are too numerous to count. And she did it all with a smile and professional pride.
4. Flo Menzies. Sunday school teacher and Guide and Brownie leader. Flo is a willing volunteer and is always there to help. Yet she is the first to step back out of the picture when the cameraman shows up. Finally she gets a small token of our appreciation.
5. Dave Christman. Former Council member and Bingo organizer. Dave single-handedly brought Bingo from a so-so thing to do one night a month, to an enjoyable, crowded, profitable, fun-filled evening of entertainment. When people come from Kindersley and Oyen to play, then you know you're pleasing the community.
6. Claire Malczewski. Volunteer supreme and community supporter. Claire's bubbling personality and community-minded spirit leave nothing to be desired. Here is a person who smiles and works and can turn anything that looks like defeat into certain victory.
7. Barry Moland. Former Mayor and Youth Bowling organizer. Again a volunteer who master-minded a plan that brought the youth of this station together in an organized bowling league. A Mayor with a thousand miles of personality and always ready to offer a helping hand.

The eighth recipient slips my mind at this time. However the above-mentioned people are all people we can be proud of, because without them, a lot of sunshine would be missing from our lives.

Part of the Editor's job is to remind writers of things they have forgotten. So, to finish the previous article: |

8. Stu Gordon. Mr. Volunteer. Stu seems to be involved in nearly everything it is possible to be involved in here. Youth Carnival, Community Council, Bingo and dance committees, Air Cadet liason, Tumbleweed, you name it, he's involved. With a capital I. CFS Alsask would not be nearly so enjoyable without him and the work he does on behalf of all of us.

There are going to be a few new faces around the Account Section and we will miss a few familiar ones. Lyle and Brenda Holmstrom have departed for CFS Dana on 13 May 80. Lyle will be replaced by Cpl Chant from CFB Petawawa on 30 May 80. John and Sylvette Philibert will be going to CFB St Jean on 07 Jul 80 and John will be succeeded by Sgt Fred Chamberlain from CFS Ganader. John and Lyle will be missed around the station and we wish them good luck on their next posting.

Summer finally made it and most of us will be planning a holiday of some sort. Those of you who have been on a budget probably have money set aside for holidays and the others intend to spend next years salary ahead of time. You may also need to plan for your car and household insurance which comes due for most of us this summer. Financial planning is a continuous process and plans are underway to hold a family finance seminar in the fall. If you are interested in this kind of a community service, contact Capt Mike Newell at local 218 or 2213.

There is another kind of insurance which we should look at - Life Insurance. Military personnel have a chance to purchase a group insurance package as members of their professional association - The Canadian Forces. Group rates are always cheaper and benefits are increased because we sell and administer our own policies at no charge to the customer. The package includes Long Term Disability (LTD) protection for members which guarantees 75% of their salary for as long as they are disabled. It also provides for a cost of living adjustment of 2% per year maximum. Survivor Income Benefits (SIB) are part of the package. This portion provides 20-50% of your salary (depending on the number of years service) to your spouse in the event of your death. This monthly amount is paid for the lifetime of the surviving spouse unless remarriage occurs. A third part of the SISIP package is Dependents Life (DL). This is straight life insurance of $10,000.00 for a wife and $2,000.00 for each child. All of these components make up SISIP and it costs very little ($12-$20 per month depending on level of salary insured). SISIP also provides for us after our service careers are over. The Post Retirement Continuation Plan (PRCP) guarantees us low cost term insurance regardless of our state of health. If you haven't taken a close look at SISIP, you are missing the boat.

TEE TOWERS

FOUR!!!

Tournament buffs get your clubs out, the season is on its way. Here are a few to watch out for in the next month:

- 31 May 80 CFB Winnipeg - Clear Lake Early Bird
- 01 Jun 80 Hoosier - Annual
- 15 Jun 80 Kindersley - Father's Day Open

If your in the market for some new golf equipment, here's something to consider. All the messes should have an up-to-date listing of clubs and prices from "Golf Haus". These clubs are pro-line at wholesale prices and the prices quoted (list & cost) are not exaggerated. They were verified at golf clubs in Medicine Hat & Calgary. I recently bought a set from Golf Haus and they delivered within 3 days. I also have another catalogue of golfing accessories at wholesale prices and if there is a good response a bulk order will be placed in the name of CFS Alsask Golf Club at cost prices.

The golf course may get a long overdue face-lift this year. The station has requested a grant of $10,000 to purchase a sprinkler system. The elevated tee-off on hole #1 has been started and it looks like it will be in good shape by next summer. Some other suggestions are a new tee-off one hole #5, moving the tee-off and green on #6 and renovating the golf shack to include a covered porch. Are there any more ideas out there? Once the Club is properly formed, there will be better lines of communication and decisions on course improvements will be made at that time. For the present, direct your requests and ideas to Capt. Mike Newell at local 218. I'll keep you posted on whats happening.

Congradulations to Cpl Pat Hall on her recent win at the Victoria Day Tournament in Medicine Hat. She was the best of the ladies with a three round total of 267 in very windy weather. Well done Pat!!!

Last year in the U.S.A. 4,076 people died from gas: 29 breathed it; 47 lit it; and 4,000 stepped on it!

THE CAMERA NEVER BLINKS by Dan Rather.

Dan Rather, a CBS correspondent is known to millions of TV viewers as the co-editor of "60 Minutes" and currently as chief editor of "Who's Who". For Dan it all began in an obscure Texas college, where he learned a lesson never to be forgotten - "Don't let them scare you". It brought him through Vietnam and Washington during the heartbreak of Watergate and covering the assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr.

Mr. Rather brings alive the fascinating world of the TV reporter. He offers his own insightful views on such vital subjects as checkbook journalism, the demands made by government officials that reporters reveal their sources and the dangers posed by the celebrity syndrome when the news business becomes show business.

ROAD TO KATMANDU by Patrick Marnham.

Katmandu, Nepal, the final resting place for hippies, deserters, addicts, beggars and mystics all escaping from the rational world that is the West. Patrick Marnham recounts his own experiences as a part of this new life - force moving on the road to Katmandu.

In Gulhane, a crowded hotel in Istanbul, the people on the run prepare their flight. Some, like Bombay Pingo, never seem to get started; others like Rat, never stop. There are tales of border jumps, dope busts and audiences with Dalai Lama. Time dissolves into space as the Himalaya Mountains reach up in the distance and Katmandu becomes a reality at the end of the road.

ALIVE by Piers Paul Read.

Lost in the vast snowy wastes of the high Andes, all official rescue efforts abandoned, no food, inadequate clothing and no medical supplies. So began a terrible ordeal for the young men and women who had set out from Uruguay in high spirits for a series of rugby matches in Chile. Their chartered airplane lost altitude and crashed into a mountain peak.

Those who survived clung to life with extraordinary tenacity. They formed themselves into an ordered society, leaders emerged who had never been leaders before. The hardest were chosen as expeditionaries. Seventy days after their crash, two of these men reached help. The survivors selected Piers Paul Read to write their exclusive story, and he is the only one who has been given a complete account of the events described here. It is the greatest survival story of our time.

KRAMER VERSUS KRAMER by Avery Corman.

Kramer versus Kramer is Ted Kramer versus Joanna Kramer, fatherhood versus motherhood, freedom versus responsibility, and finally, petitioner versus respondent as the wife, in a bitter custody battle, tries to take the child she abandoned away from the husband she divorced.

It is also the story of a love affair of a kind - that of a father with his little boy. Ted Kramer, a man who was not certain at first if he wanted a child, learns that he cannot live without him.

The story captures all that is amusing and touching and true about single parenthood; divorce, housekeepers, Fire Island group houses, singles' bars, grandparents, weekends in the playground, economic survival in the city, and the care and love for a small child.

FINANCIAL - SMALL LOANS AND BENEVOLENT FUND ASSISTANCE

1. The Canadian Forces Personnel Assistance Fund (CFPAF) comprises the Canadian Forces Small Loan Programme (CFSLP) and the Canadian Forces Financial Distress Programme. The Financial Distress Programme is operated in co-operation with the Royal Canadian Air Force Benevolent Fund (RCAFBF).

2. CFSLP Small loans of $50. to $500. are available to all members of the Canadian Forces (Regular) for any genuine purpose that will promote the well-being of members or their dependents.

3. CFSLP repayment rates may be geared from six to 24 months depending on the amount of the loan, at a service charge of $3.00 per $100. per year or approximately 5½% simple interest.

4. Any regular member on leave, TD, etc. away from his home unit may apply to the unit nearest him for an emergency loan.

5. If a member is on an unaccompanied posting, his dependent may make application to the loan committee where the dependent is located for assistance.

6. Applications for CFSLP small loans, Distress/Benevolent Fund Assistance, or Benevolent/Financial counselling committee:
